

Mission Statement

Founded by the Sisters of Mercy, Broughton Hall is committed to the Catholic Education of pupils through our Gospel and Mercy values which permeate the life of the school.

Aims for our community

To recognise, nurture and celebrate the potential of each individual.

To foster a caring, joyful and purposeful community in which all work hard whilst being accepting of others.

To achieve excellence through an education which:
is concerned with the whole person; enables each person to develop spiritually, vocationally, physically, academically

To foster a strong sense of community through our Mercy Values:

Learning, Acceptance, Resilience

Community, Environment, Generosity

Sincerity, Service, Forgiveness

Objectives

To ensure that school policies and documents are rooted in these aims and reflect our Mercy Values

To provide a curriculum and teaching strategies which ensure pupils of differing needs can learn to their full potential

To promote a welcoming, safe, attractive environment

To promote an awareness of equal opportunities, social justice, peace and global issues and apply their Mercy Values to these

To strengthen the partnership of staff and pupils with parents, governors, parishes and local community, united in a common purpose.
