

LITERACY NEWS @

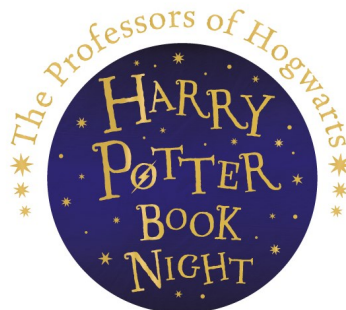

Broughton Hall Catholic High School

Winter Edition 2016/2017

WHAT'S BEEN HAPPENING?

Harry Potter book night is on the horizon and on February 3rd 2017 we will be celebrating all things Harry Potter, this years theme is the Professors of Hogwarts.

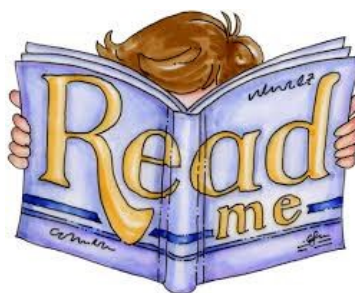

Debate club has started with all year groups coming together. Debate club meets each Wednesday after school and is run by the schools deputy head girl who has lots of experience within debating and has travelled to London to be part of competitions!

PARENT VOLUNTEERS NEEDED!

We have been searching for parent volunteer's to come in and read with Year 7 pupils, we have a few on board but if you would like to help too, please email the school, we would love to hear from you!

Keep looking on our school website for all the fun things we have been getting up to at Broughton—all our literacy events are posted and photographs and stories uploaded! You will also find our Gold Reading Quality Kitemark we were awarded as a school and how we are continuing to maintain our status.

CatchUp[®] Literacy

Catch up literacy is now being taught on a wider spectrum within Broughton Hall, helping all pupils with all areas of literacy.
