Broughton Hall Catholic High School

Founded in 1928 under the trusteeship of the Sisters of Mercy, Broughton Hall Catholic High School, an all-girls Catholic secondary school in Liverpool, provides the very best in modern education based on the Gospel values of mutual respect and care.

The central aim of our school is to provide excellent educational opportunities enabling each pupil to develop their God given talents, to grow in confidence and self-esteem and to fulfil their potential.

As a Catholic school Broughton Hall centres its mission on the person of Jesus Christ, and promotes the Gospel values throughout the school community and in all aspects of school life: spiritual, academic, pastoral, and personal. By proclaiming and living out the faith of the Catholic Church, we support each other in shared experiences of teaching and learning, prayer, worship and charity. Our mercy values permeate throughout our community.

Broughton Hall is Ofsted rated as a “Good” provider (November 2022).

Our facilities are bright, spacious, high tech and designed to meet the needs of all our pupils. We have a separate 6th Form facility, which is shared with our neighbouring boys school Cardinal Heenan Catholic High School. A full range of extra-curricular activities are provided to further the creative, sporting and academic talents of each pupil and offer Outward Bound and Duke of Edinburgh Award schemes as well as the opportunity to attend educational visits and residential trips.

We pride ourselves on our high expectations of all pupils and have an ‘Ambition for All’ policy. Whatever your role within the school, you will share these values and be able to encourage and motivate pupils with your passion, presence and personality.

Our school motto ‘Cor Unum et Anima Una’ - One Heart and One Mind, reflects the strong sense of community amongst pupils, staff, parents and Governors.

JOB DESCRIPTION

JOB PURPOSE

To support high-quality teaching and learning across the school by providing planned classroom cover for absent teachers and delivering targeted intervention programmes to support pupils' academic progress and personal development when cover is not required.

The post holder will be a key member of the school's Cover Team, ensuring continuity of learning during teacher absence while maintaining high expectations of behaviour, engagement and achievement.

Key Responsibilities

Classroom Cover

- Supervise whole classes during the short-term absence of teachers.
- Deliver pre-prepared lessons across a range of curriculum subjects.
- Ensure pupils remain engaged in learning and complete the work set.
- Manage classroom behaviour in line with the school's Behaviour Policy.
- Establish a positive learning environment that promotes high expectations.
- Provide feedback to teaching staff regarding lesson outcomes, pupil engagement and any concerns arising.
- Support pupils with varying learning needs during cover lessons.
- Ensure safeguarding procedures are followed at all times.

Intervention and Pupil Support

When classroom cover is not required, the HLTA will:

- Plan and deliver high-quality intervention programmes for individuals and small groups.
- Deliver literacy, numeracy and subject-specific interventions to improve pupil progress.
- Support pupils identified through assessment data as requiring additional support.
- Deliver catch-up programmes following periods of absence.

- Work with teachers and SEND staff to implement targeted intervention strategies.
- Monitor pupil progress and maintain accurate records of intervention outcomes.
- Adapt intervention approaches to meet individual learning needs.
- Contribute to raising attainment across the school.

Teaching and Learning Support

- Support teachers in improving pupil outcomes.
- Promote independent learning and resilience.
- Assist with assessment activities where appropriate.
- Help prepare learning resources and teaching materials.
- Support the Reflection and Inclusion room.
- Support pupils with SEND, EAL or additional learning needs as required.
- Encourage positive attitudes towards learning.

Behaviour and Safeguarding

- Promote excellent standards of behaviour.
- Apply the school's Behaviour Policy consistently.
- Build positive professional relationships with pupils.
- Report safeguarding concerns immediately in accordance with school procedures.
- Promote equality, inclusion and respect for all members of the school community.

Communication

- Liaise effectively with teachers, pastoral staff, SEND staff and senior leaders.
- Provide clear written and verbal feedback following cover lessons and interventions.
- Maintain accurate intervention records and pupil progress information.
- Attend relevant meetings, training and professional development.

General Responsibilities

- Support whole-school events where appropriate.
- Participate in CPD and training relevant to the role.

- Maintain confidentiality at all times.
- Promote the ethos and values of the school.
- Undertake any other duties appropriate to the grade of the post as directed by the Head teacher.

REPORTING

The post holder will report to the assistant head teacher (teaching and learning) Cover Manager (as appropriate)

CONDUCT

- Employees are expected to be courteous to colleagues, to be professional and punctual in the execution of their duties and responsibilities, model Gospel values and provide a welcoming, professional environment to visitors and external colleagues.
- Whilst every effort has been made to explain the main duties and responsibilities of the post, each individual task may not have been identified; therefore employees will be expected to comply with any reasonable request from a manager, including ad hoc projects, to undertake work of a similar level that is not specified in the job description.

Whilst every effort has been made to explain the main duties and responsibilities of the post, each individual task may not have been identified; therefore employees will be expected to comply with any reasonable request from a manager, including ad hoc projects, to undertake work of a similar level that is not specified in the job description.
